

KLOVE offers a quality advertising free programming alternative to other local radio stations in my community. Eliminating national programming opportunities would have a huge impact on smaller non-metropolitan communities because of our already limited programming. As I mentioned already, KLOVE benefits my community by offering an christian and advertising free alternative that would likely not be duplicated in smaller communities.